

The Australian Industry Group (AIG)

The Registered Organisations Commission is responsible for regulating the financial returns, annual returns, elections and disclosures of registered organisations. These records are available below.

Rules and Rule alterations remain with the Fair Work Commission and the FWC continues to host those records on its website.

About the AIG

Organisation type and coverage: an organisation of employers connected to the manufacturing and metal industries

Financial year: 1 July to 30 June

Registration date: 24 May 1926

The organisation has branches in New South Wales, Queensland, South Australia and Victoria.

The organisation presents 1 financial report, which incorporates the financial affairs of the head office and all of the branches on the basis of a consolidation certificate issued on 15 May 1984. Further, the organisation and its branches currently hold exemptions from having their elections conducted by the AEC.

The management of the business and control of the organisation is vested in the National Executive, whereas in each branch such control is vested in the Branch Council.

The branches are represented on the National Executive by their respective officers.

For the current rules, information on rules, rule alterations and permits, please see the Fair Work Commission website. These matters are dealt with by the Fair Work Commission.
