

Australian Salaried Medical Officers Federation (ASMOF)

The Registered Organisations Commission is responsible for regulating the financial returns, annual returns, elections and disclosures of registered organisations. These records are available below.

Rules and Rule alterations remain with the Fair Work Commission and the FWC continues to host those records on its website.

About the ASMOF

Organisation type and coverage: a union of employees in connection with the industry for medical services, education and research

Financial year: 1 January to 31 December

Date of registration: 8 February 1991

There are 8 branches in the organisation. Each branch is a reporting unit for the purposes of lodging financial reports. The supreme governing body of the organisation is vested in the Federal Council, which consists of the federal office bearers and representatives from each branch.

The organisation and its branches have their elections conducted by the AEC

For the current rules, information on rules, rule alterations and permits, please see the Fair Work Commission website. These matters are dealt with by the Fair Work Commission.
